JLM DESIGN & REMODELING 2006 Parade of Homes First Place Winner

May 16, 2006—JLM Design & Remodeling takes home another First Place Award for their whole house remodel of a 1960's home in this year's Parade of Homes Remodelors' Showcase.

When you love the neighborhood but not the house, redefine your living space! Such was the case with this Winter Park home, a 1960's residence that was dramatically updated to complement the owners' love of entertaining and leisure living. The tiny kitchen and dining room were renovated into a modern, room kitchen with granite countertops, island stove and sleek stainless steel hood, while an open patio was roofed to offer a lovely outdoor living area. The redesigned master suite boasted custom closet systems. Brazilian Cherry hardwood floors span the interior of this remarkable transformation.
